Position: Senior Men's Coaching Role 2020

As the present coach is not seeking reappointment, the Hampton Hammers Football Netball Club (affiliated SFNL) is seeking suitable and qualified applicants for the position of Senior Men's Coach for the 2020 Season.

The football club has set some really strong foundations this season and will most likely play finals. With a blend of experienced senior players and a young and exciting list the club is set improve in the coming years.

We are seeking a passionate, well organised, enthusiastic leader who has a record of providing leadership and working with a leadership group.

The successful applicant will be required to lead and manage the development and implementation of the club's football strategy. This will include:

- Developing the Club's Football & Coaching Strategy.
- Overall Coaching of Players & Coaching Staff and effective game plan implementation.
- Relationship management across a diverse stakeholder group.
- Developing a culture of success with shared values.
- A keen interest in player development.
- Promoting the Club and its Brand.

The Senior Coach will also be involved in the recruitment of new players, support staff and player retention as well as holding suitable coaching accreditations.
